

HOUSE RULES

- 1. The Aerie reserves the right to refuse anyone admittance to the social quarters.
- 2. Visitors from other Aeries' will be permitted entrance to the Buffet and Social Quarters upon presentation of their official receipt that they are a member in good standing, provided they are in good standing with this Aerie. Individuals who were rejected for membership by majority vote of the members in secret ballot are not considered to be in good standing with this Aerie.
- 3. An Aerie and/or Auxiliary member is permitted to sign in four guest per visit. Anyone sponsoring a guest will be responsible for that guest and the actions of the guest. With prior approval from the Board of trustees a member may sign in as many guests as they want for that day. No guest may remain after the member who sponsored him or her leaves the quarters.
- 4. All guests over 21 must be signed the guest book. All guests must wear a visitors tag at all times. The exception to this is a guest who is attending a catered event as specified in rule #5, need not be signed into the guest book.
- 5. A guest may visit as many times as they want within 90 days of their first visit, except the spouse or companion of an Aerie or Auxiliary member may visit as many times as they wish while being accompanied by their spouse or companion.
- 6. Any Guest outside of a 50 mile radius maybe exempt from the above visit rule with special permission from the trustees of the Aerie. Former members are allowed 2 visits before having to rejoin. Once a former member has turned in a reenrolled application they can come in as a guest as many times they wish for up to 60 days.
- 7. All Members must have their official dues receipt with them to be admitted in the Aerie. Members with a delinquent dues receipt card will not be permitted in the Aerie, except to pay their dues. Prior members, who have been dropped from membership, may be signed in as a guest twice. After their second visit they must fill out a "re-enrollment" application and they will not be allowed in the Aerie until they have been approved for membership.
- 8. The Aerie shall maintain a strict "no check cashing policy" except for exact payment of dues.
- 9. No one under the age of 21 will be permitted in the Aerie unless they are the spouse of a member in good standing, or are attending an approved function for younger individuals. Spouses under 21 may not be seated at the Bar, but rather must be seated at tables or in the Banquet room with their other spouse who is a member.
- 10. Individuals under 21 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian and are not permitted to sit at the bar. These individuals must be actually accompanied by and remain with their parent or guardian while in the Aeries. Special time restrictions also apply to individuals under 21 (other than spouses) and these restrictions will be posted separately.

11. Misconduct, including, profane, loud, boisterous language, conduct unbecoming an Eagle or destruction of property will not be tolerated. Any individual who willfully destroys or misappropriates Aerie property shall be required to make full restitution.

12. All must vacate the Aerie within 30 minutes of last call. Anyone refusing to leave the Aerie upon the request of the Steward, Manager, or Trustee, at any time will be in violation of the house rules and subject to disciplinary action by the Aerie.

13. The Club must supply food and beverages for the Banquet Hall unless the trustees give special permission to bring food in.

14. Section 63.2(C), statutes, F.O.E., will be strictly enforced. Offenses against the laws of the order shall include, but not limited to, “Any conduct unbecoming an Eagle”, any violation of House or Aerie rules, or personal conduct likely to bring disgrace upon the Order.

15. Alcoholic beverages may not leave or be brought into the Aerie. Gambling is permitted only in accordance with state and local law.

16. Any member of the Aerie or Auxiliary whose continuous personal conduct is such as to bring the good reputation of Fraternal Order of Eagles #1562, into disrepute or to endanger our friendly relationship with PLCB or other enforcement officers, shall be subject to disciplinary actions.
